Dean Spears is a lifelong resident of Kings Mountain and a 1952 graduate of Kings Mountain High School. He also attended King's Business College, Cleveland Community College and Gaston College. Dean served in the Navy during the Korean War, 1953-1957, and retired from the Naval Reserve with 36 years of service. Dean is married to Betty Watterson Spears. Their 49 years together have given them a grown daughter, Robin S. Spicer and son, Michael D. Spears. Dean and Betty have three grandchildren, Maegan, Stacey and Jared Spicer.

Dean was also self-employed as a masonry contractor and later as a building contractor, now retired but working part-time with Castlegate Construction of Gastonia. Dean enjoys all kinds of sports, as a player, a coach and now as a spectator. He also enjoys reading, working with the computer, gardening and yard work. Dean is an active, regular member of First Baptist Church in Kings Mountain and is currently serving his 11th year as a city council member.
