Keith Miller has lived in Kings Mountain for 22 years. He currently works as a Municipal Adviser helping many organizations and municipalities with their investments and capital finance. Keith obtained a Bachelor's degree in Political Science from UNC-Charlotte and is currently working on a Masters in Public Administration. This is Keith's second time serving as a member of city council, and he has also served as a member of the Kings Mountain Planning and Zoning board, Board of Adjustments and the Finance Committee.

Keith and his wife of 30 years, Julie, have been active members of First Baptist Church, where Keith has been able to serve as a deacon. They have raised three children: Danielle, who just graduated from Elon University School of Law, Christopher who is a senior obtaining a degree in Mechanical Engineering Technology, and Lauren who is a freshman in college.
